The Longer Moment

Thursday 21 September
7:30 - 9:30pm
Patrick Mikhail Gallery

An extension of the current exhibition The Long Moment at Patrick Mikhail Gallery in Montréal, this presentation of video works provides an opportunity to see a series of rarely or never-before screened short projects by the artists in the exhibition: Velibor Božović, Jinyoung Kim, Thomas Kneubühler and David K. Ross.

In these videos duration is manifest as a palpable force, a history lesson, a methodology, and a necessity. People slowly disappear from a beach, a bucolic French countryside breaths on its own, a visitor from other planet stays too long, and a terrifying helicopter flight outlasts the short life of fish in a pond.
